Thank you Bulldog Autobody for repairing the immense amount of paint damage that was done on my Blue P-Series, your work is incredible and the paint job done is amazing. Although the color is very unique you guys nailed it, it looks brand new! Thank you for your quick response and quick repair! Thank you for your professionalism and support

Services: General repairs & maintenance, Auto detailing

The best and most efficient autobody centre that I have ever used. Definitely highly recommended, they went out of their way to make sure I received my vehicle back in time so that I don't lose any productivity, they know their customer and go out of their way to make sure the service provided is of the highest order.
